

HELLO!

Pleasure to meet you! I am Doretha White and I am so happy that you've decided to visit my site today. I hope that the information here is helpful to you as you ponder your next big move in life. Professionally, I am an entrepreneur, business coach, writer, publisher, luxury travel advisor, course creator, and philanthropist. However, my favorite titles are wife, mom, & sister.

I grew up in the breathtakingly beautiful foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia. That's God's country! I graduated from Rappahannock County High School, then attended Virginia Tech for my undergraduate degree in Elementary Education and the College of William and Mary for my Master's Degree in Educational Leadership.

I spent 21 rewarding years as a professional educator, teacher, assistant principal, principal, & teacher development specialist in both public and private schools. My husband Michael and I started our first business, a niche travel company, in 2003. Together, we worked hard, scrimping, scratching, and scraping to build our business from nothing more than an idea to a niche market leader, doing $500,000+ in annual sales.

In July 2020, Michael and I launched our 2nd and 3rd businesses. The first was another niche venture, Dream Big Custom Cargo Trailers, Inc., wherein we design and build custom cargo trailers for mobile businesses. Secondly, we launched Doretha White Entities, Inc. an umbrella company that houses all of my personal, unique ventures including business coaching, publishing, luxury travel planning, digital courses, and my philanthropic projects.

Whether you stopped by to learn more about my digital course offerings, my business coaching or book publishing services, or you're interested in joining my travel planning team or you want to support my philanthropic projects, I welcome you here. Ready to start that business you've been thinking about? Want to finally get that book published? Feeling stuck but don't quite know how to get unstuck? Let's talk about it.
